13 THE MUSICAL . . . . . October 27 - 29

Thirteen year old, Evan Goldman moves from big city New York to small town Appleton, Indiana. There, he finds himself surrounded by problems with new friendships, romance, and the celebration of his Bar Mitzvah. If you enjoyed Disney's High School Musical, you'll love this contemporary, upbeat musical that is fun for all ages!

MACBETH . . . . . February 2 - 4

Lust for power. Broken trusts. Betrayals. A prophecy by 3 witches leads Macbeth on an obsessive quest to be King. Shakespeare's popular tragedy reveals a hero's fall from grace.

OUR TOWN . . . . . May 3 - 5

Thornton Wilder's Pulitzer Prize winning play. A 'reality show' of small town life tracing the childhood, courtship, marriage, and death of Emily Webb. Our Town continues to be one of the most performed plays in this country and encourages audiences to appreciate life to its fullest.

A Night of One Acts . . . . . November 22
