

Glenbard West 2022/2023 Theatre Season

★ Alice in Wonderland: October 6, 7:00pm & October 8, 2:00pm

(Due to GW Auditorium renovations, performances will be held at the Glenbard East little theatre.) Alice journeys into a world of talking animals, comic royalty and races where the contestants run in circles! The finale has Alice watching a trial, but she suddenly finds herself the accused! The play provides a modern view to Lewis Carroll's classic novel, where nonsense makes quite good sense.

★ Black Box Comedy: The Money in Uncle George's Suitcase, October 20-22, 7:00pm (Limited seating, tickets sold at the door.)

When Uncle George invites his family for a weekend of fun to his rustic cabin, he actually wants them together so he can read his will. When his relatives learn that somewhere on the property is a suitcase holding $480,000, they wrestle each other, fall down stairs, and get stuck in furniture. But George's gift is more important than money, teaching that even broken families can reunite and find peace.

★ Black Box New Play Festival: January 19-21, 7:00pm

(Limited seating, tickets sold at the door.) GW Theatre's annual festival celebrating new playwrights! Two new student written & student directed plays will be featured.

★ Chicago: High School Edition (Musical): April 20-22, 7:30pm

Set in the 1920s, CHICAGO is a story of jazz, love, crime, and yearning for fame. Roxie & Velma are on their way to becoming famous performers, but their hopes are dashed when they wind up in jail for crimes they "didn't" commit. They leverage the press and even their own loved ones in a quest to not only be acquitted, but to achieve stardom. Featuring the songs, "All That Jazz" & "Razzle Dazzle," CHICAGO is a rousing, energetic story that will leave you wanting more.

